

Order of the Silver Sword

Order of the Silver Sword (School)

Background:

Renee Laniren, a young noble from the Sovereignty of Cata, started the Order of the Silver Sword. Renee's brother Willie was travelling the streets of Randeria early one evening when 2 thugs jumped from the shadows and killing and robbing the young noble. Renee made it his personal quest to teach everyone that he could to defend themselves. The school now resides in the city of Varsath.

This order is a military school supported by rich families who wish to teach their young members to defend themselves if needed.

Characteristics:

This long time military academy is doing more for young men and women of means than it ever has. It teaches fighting and defense and honor. It teaches cultures from around the world, it teaches some common courtesy as well. The one thing it does not teach is leadership. The Order's focus is to stay alive when you are alone.
